Bedford Council of Faiths is holding a simple Holocaust Memorial Day Ceremony

in
RUSSELL PARK, Bedford
on

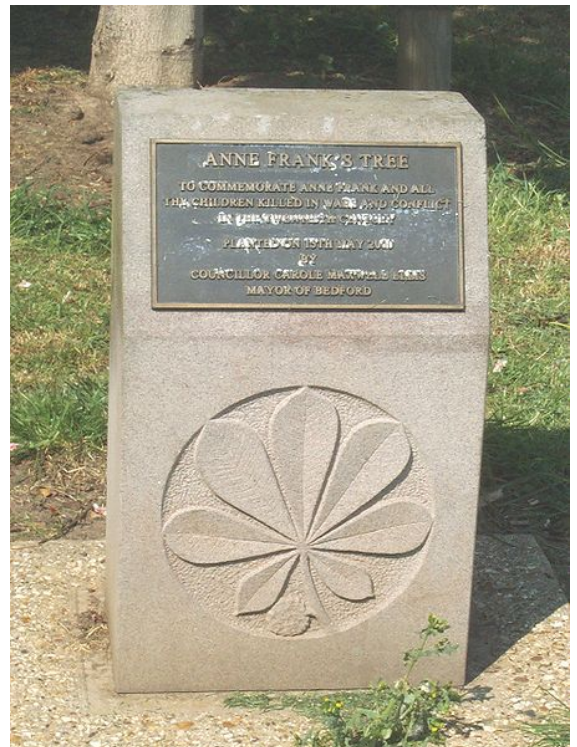

Wednesday 27th January 2010 at 1p.m. (13.00hrs)

The short commemoration will include prayers, a minute's silence and lighting a memorial candle at the tree which was planted 10 years ago by the then Mayor of Bedford, Cllr Carole Maxwell Ellis to acknowledge the life and work of Anne Frank.

All are invited to attend this ceremony

Assemble at the Anne Frank Memorial tree which is between Bower and Pembroke Street.

(Coming from Pembroke Street (on foot) towards Russell Park, enter the park and veer slightly to the right on the foot path in the park. It is only a few metres in along this path, the only tree with a plaque but the tree is totally bare now. Please see attached map.)
